

Lesson 05 True or False 問題集

Part 1

- 1) The job of hospital facility dogs is giving emotional support to children. (T)
- 2) Hospital facility dogs support children. (T)
- 3) Children suffer from pain and stress because of injections or surgery. (T)
- 4) Hospital facility dogs stay with the children to comfort them. (T)
- 5) Children cannot get emotional support from facility dogs. (F)
- 6) Handlers work with facility dogs. (T)
- 7) Handlers and facility dogs work with other members of the medical team. (T)
- 8) Handlers are not members of the medical team. (F)
- 9) Facility dogs are not members of the medical team. (F)
- 10) Handlers take care of facility dogs. (T)
- 11) Facility dogs always live in hospitals. (F)
- 12) Handlers and facility dogs live together. (T)
- 13) Facility dogs are not with the handlers in their homes. (F)

Part 2

- 1) Handlers keep their facility dogs clean. (T)
- 2) Facility dogs must be clean to work in a hospital. (T)
- 3) Handlers brush their dogs' hair and teeth carefully every day. (T)
- 4) Handlers should always be nervous. (F)
- 5) Handlers are usually very sensitive, but facility dogs are not. (F)
- 6) Facility dogs may feel sad or nervous if their handlers do too. (T)
- 7) Even when facility dogs feel sad or nervous, they enjoy their work. (F)

- 8) Facility dogs cannot enjoy their work if their handlers are sad. (T)
- 9) Facility dogs don't have to understand their handlers. (F)
- 10) Handlers and facility dogs have a strong bond because they are together twenty-four seven. (T)
- 11) Facility dogs are not always with their handlers. (F)