[1] ハナと留学生のダニエルが話をしています。

Hana: I heard you want to work in the anime industry in the future.

Daniel: Yes. I want to make children happy through my work. This is the reason why I got interested in the anime industry.

Hana: That's nice. I still don't know what I want to do. How can I find my dream?

Daniel: To find your dream, ask these two questions. "What are you good at?" and "What type of person you want to become?" I hope this will help you.

Hana: Thanks! I'll take time to find my dream.

[2] サユリがALTのエバンズ先生と話をしています。

Sayuri: I read in the newspaper that the number of Japanese students going abroad is decreasing. I think it's strange.

Mr. Evans: Why is that, Sayuri?

Sayuri: The article says that young people are shy and that they worry about their English skills. But many of my friends want to go abroad.

Mr. Evans: You are right. I saw a survey that said the number is increasing. Survey results may be different depending on the approach.

Sayuri: Oh, that's why I thought the news article was strange. It's important to look at things carefully, isn't it?
