Describe the busiest day you've ever had.

【解答例】

My busiest day was just before I left for the United States on a homestay program last summer. I first went to pick up my passport at the passport office. I then went to a department store with my mother to buy a gift for my host family. I wasn't sure what to buy, but I wanted to get something Japanese. My mother suggested a Japanese fan, so I bought two, one for my host mother and another one for my host sister. I also bought a small bottle of sake for my host father. I also needed to buy some guidebooks and a large suitcase. After shopping, my mother and I had dinner at a restaurant on the top floor of the department store. I ordered Japanese food, because I didn't think I would be able to eat any in the U.S. By the end of the day I was very tired, but it's now a very memorable day for me.

An exchange student at your school called Andrew wants to experience some Japanese culture. Think of something interesting you can show him, and write a text message to invite him to join you.

【解答例】

Hi Andrew,

Are you free this weekend? I'm thinking of going to Tsukishima this Saturday. It's famous for monjayaki. Do you know what that is? It's similar to okonomiyaki. You make it yourself by frying batter and other things on a hot plate on your table. It's fun to make and delicious to eat! Would you like to join me?
