

① Choose the suitable one.

- (1) We've been working all day, so we (should / shouldn't) have a break.
- (2) We (must / shouldn't) eat more vegetables. They are good for our health.
- (3) You (mustn't / don't have to) bring your umbrella. The forecast says it will be sunny today.
- (4) If you don't have a license, you (mustn't / don't have to) drive a car.
- (5) Mike (must / had to) finish a lot of work yesterday.

② Choose one of the following words and complete the sentences. Use "may," "must," "should," or "cannot." [attend / have / miss / study]

- (1) Ann has not come to school yet. She () () () the train.
- (2) I () () () harder before the exam. I got a bad score.
- (3) He left his office late last night. He () () () a lot of work to do.
- (4) Jun () () () the soccer game yesterday. He had an examination.

③ Express the following in English.

- (1) 私は明日の朝、5時に起きなければいけません。
-

- (2) 目覚まし時計をセットする (set the alarm clock) のがよいでしょう。
-

Class

No.

Name
