The best place I have ever been to in Japan is Okinawa. In addition to the main Okinawa Island, Okinawa Prefecture is made up of about 160 islands. These islands have beautiful white-sand beaches and are surrounded by emerald seas with crystal clear water. Okinawa offers visitors many leisure activities, including snorkeling, scuba diving, kayaking, canoeing, parasailing, fishing, and whale watching. You can also see some whale sharks, the largest fish in the world, at Okinawa Churaumi Aquarium.
